The History of Cusco
Cuzco, Peru’s Inca capital, to Puno

DAY ONE: Arrival into Lima
Meet your Campus Abroad staff at the Lima Airport and transfer to your hotel. Enjoy a farewell reception and dinner at the hotel, hotel José Antonio Executive Lima.

DAY TWO: Lima
Lima, Peru’s pre-Columbian capital, today is an international city of 8 million people. Enjoy a tour of the center of Spain’s South American empire and meet the People. The History of Lima combines old and new, with its magnificent views overlooking the bay of Lima and Puente de Maytas. The 16th-century, 5-story-high Archbishop’s Palace was built by the Inca. This sacred city is perched 11,152 feet above sea level. Lima’s 19th-century buildings are modernist in style, with simple lines and geometric shapes. Lima is known for its colonial mansions, Casa García Alvarado. Your strolling tour will include the ruins of the Inca capital, to Aguas Calientes and the mountain.

Independent Exploration: See the highlights of Lima and the Plaza Mayor, a central square that反映了 the colonial past. Lima’s modern skyline includes the Miraflores district, with upscale restaurants, parks and entertainment. Savor traditional Peruvian food or international cuisine served aboard the train.

DAY THREE: Cuzco
Independent Exploration: Visit the plaza’s bronze fountain, unveiled in 1963 by the Inca to Aguas Calientes and the mountain.

EVENING EXPERIENCE

A PRELUDE TO THE INCA EMPIRE

Sacred Valley of the Inca

A three-hour journey to the Sacred Valley of the Inca to see Ollantaytambo and Chinchero.

Excursion: Ollantaytambo and Chinchero

Lower the majestic stepped stairs into the ancient Inca city of Ollantaytambo, still today a community of about 1,500 people. Explore this important archaeological site in the Americas that includes a defensive fortress and a living community. Nearby, in the heart of the Andes, visit Chinchero, founded by the Incas as a weaving center.

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF THE INCAS

The morning is free to explore the city at leisure. Your informally guided walking tour of Lima's ancient Plaza Mayor provides personalized insights into the capital of the Spanish Empire. This square was the social and economic center of the city and a strategic location to control the entire country. The Spanish kings ruled from here for 300 years. The Plaza Mayor was the stage for important political ceremonies and public events. The square is lined with important colonial mansions and churches, including the Archbishop's Palace, the church of San Francisco and the basilica of Santo Domingo.

Afternoon Free Time

Your independent exploration of Lima's interesting neighborhoods gives you the chance to enjoy the city at your own pace.

Day Three

Educational Focus: Lima's Colonial Era

Lima was the capital of the Spanish Empire for 200 years. Your independent walking tour of Lima's colonial mansions emphasizes the foundations of the city. Lima was the administrative and economic center of the Spanish Empire in the New World and the site of countless meetings of the viceroy. Lima's colonial architecture reflects the Spanish influence and illustrates the wealth of the Spanish Empire.

Educational Focus: Lima's Architecture

In the afternoon, visit Lima's most famous landmarks, including the Cathedral of Lima and Plaza Mayor. The Plaza Mayor is the central square of Lima and a prominent example of Spanish colonial architecture in South America. The church of San Francisco, a masterpiece of colonial art, features intricate carvings and colorful frescoes. The colonial mansions of Lima are fine examples of colonial architecture that reflect the wealth and power of the Spanish Empire.

Peru
Land of the Inca

Day One
Board your morning flight to Lima. Peru's capital city, once the capital of the Inca Empire, is a city of intriguing contrasts. Walk through the historic center where you'll see both the old and the modern. Visit the impressive 17th-century Plaza de Armas, the main public square and scene of much of Lima's activity. Walk by the historic Archbishop's Palace, considered the most beautiful colonial building in the Americas, and view the plastic wrap still visible on its walls. See the Museum of the Inca, located in the former palace of the Inca's viceroy, and the nearby 16th-century Jesuit church and university, now a national archaeological museum. Before the Spanish conquest, the area was home to some 4,000 priests and attendants. Enjoy a welcome reception at the deluxe Hotel José Antonio Puno, located on Miraflores, one of Lima's most elegant neighborhoods. Surrounded by steep agricultural terraces, the hotel sits at 12,500 feet, making it the world's highest hotel. Enjoy a delicious dinner at the hotel restaurant. (B, D)

Day Two
Lima, the Ancient Inca
Begin your day exploring Lima's colonial center. Learn about the architectural elegance and historic splendor of Lima’s finest colonial mansions. Walk by the Palace of the Inquisitor, the residence of the Inca's viceroy, and view the Palace of the Archbishop, once the residence of Lima's archbishops. Continue to the Lima Cathedral, completed in 1651. See the President's Palace, elegant City Hall and the cathedral's Spanish mosaics and floor created Manco Capac, founder of the Inca Empire. The hilltop temple of Qenko, an amphitheater where mummies were buried, is a section of the site. The temple is surrounded by steep agricultural terraces. The Inca sun god, Inti, rose out of the lake and became the center of Spain's South American empire until 1821, when Peru declared independence. Enjoy a farewell dinner at a Lima restaurant. (B, D)

Day Three
Educational Focus:
Learn about the architectural engineering and materials used in Machu Picchu, the lost city of the Inca Empire. The UNESCO World Heritage Site is located 12 miles from Aguas Calientes, at an elevation of 7,800 feet. Machu Picchu is the crowning achievement of Inca town planning. The city features more than three miles of nature paths. The town and the hotel sit at 12,500 feet, making it the world's highest hotel. Enjoy a welcome reception at the deluxe Hotel José Antonio Puno, located on Miraflores. Surrounded by steep agricultural terraces, the hotel sits at 12,500 feet, making it the world’s highest hotel. Day Six
Machu Picchu & Cusco
Check into the Andean Explorer train and enjoy a Pisco sour in the bar before checking into your hotel. The Andean Explorer train, set to debut in 2023, is Peru's newest narrow gauge railway, offering a unique 12-day journey through the Andes. It includes a stop in Machu Picchu, the Lost City of the Inca. The train is designed to transport passengers in comfort and style, offering a luxurious experience with views of the Andes. Enjoy a farewell dinner at a Lima restaurant. (B, D)

Day Seven
Excursion: Cusco, the Ancient City
Upon arriving in Cusco, the ancient capital of the Inca Empire, take a private tour of the city. Visit the Temple of the Sun, the main temple of the Inca Empire, and the Basilica Cathedral, the largest in Latin America. The Inca, weakened by smallpox brought by the Spanish, was defeated by Atahualpa and his brother, eventually leading to the fall of the Inca Empire. The town also sits at 12,500 feet, making it the world’s highest hotel. Enjoy a farewell dinner at a Lima restaurant. (B, D)

Day Eight
The Inca Empire
Explore the Inca Empire, a civilization that once dominated the Andean region from the 13th to the 16th centuries. Visit the ruins of Machu Picchu, the ancient capital of the Inca Empire, and learn about the architectural engineering and materials used in the city. Enjoy a farewell dinner at a Lima restaurant. (B, D)

Dear Friends of TCU,

We are pleased to invite you to join us on an exciting journey to Peru. This prepaid program features a visit to the Inca ruins of Machu Picchu and a visit to the spectacular ancient city of Cuzco. Alternatively, you may choose to make your own air arrangements and transfers. Experienced Travel Directors will attend to every detail and based on tariffs, exchange rates and other factors, your trip can be tailored to your needs.

Your journey begins in Cuzco. The high point of the trip is the journey from Cuzco to Puno aboard the Andean Explorer. This full-day train ride takes you through the stunning Andean highland and across the majestic Andes Mountains. Lunch is at El Grande rail carriage, and dinner is at the Acorn rail carriage. The train makes its way through the variety of landscapes the Andes have to offer, including deserts, mountains, and valleys.

The trip continues the next morning as a group of Peru's most experienced and professional guides and drivers will show you the many highlights of Cuzco and the Sacred Valley. You'll see the Incan citadel of Machu Picchu, visit the nearby market town of Ollantaytambo, and discover the ancient city of Machu Picchu. The Inca stonework in the semicircular temple of the Sun is one of the most impressive architectural feats in the world. You'll see the Morning Temple and the Main Temple, along with other ancient inca structures. You'll have the opportunity to climb some of these guides on the tour.

Location: Lima, Cuzco, Macha Picchu, and Puno.
